

Break out Room 6

In 2027, as a result of the work that's been done to reduce carbon emissions, what will be better about	One or two answers agreed by the group. One idea per answer Bullet points not sentences.
Your home?	*Everyone will have access to knowledge, financial resources, and networks of support and information to improve their own home Food supplied locally, energy supplied locally. Warm &amp; dry home - lowcarbon heating, good insulation fitted by local fitters. No longer giving tours of my low carbon house. Making the technology easy to understand &amp; to use accessible less daunting. Liking /feeling comfortable at home/loving your environment Homes changing to accommodate work/ not isolated/work more communal
Your neighbourhood?	Street clear of cars, good access to buses. Safe cycleways &amp; electric bikes Green spaces, embedded in education Everything you need is within 15 minutes Knowledge sharing

Your city, town or village (depending where you live in South Yorkshire)?	Democracy: processes that weren't there before: For our climate response to be bottom up we have also addressed other systematic problems. Continuing creative participation. Every city has a climate action centre People are at home in the city Coproduction Addressing inequalities Individuals have opportunities to attach themselves to low carbon activities.
Across South Yorkshire?	*A change of ethos in schools *Participatory deliberative democracy structures emerging to regional city &amp; climate change &amp; justice issues *Large scale business is included. *Understanding how people can come &amp; advocate. Local councils refuse carbon hungry planning applications What businesses do we need? What jobs do we need? A change of ethos - what is needed? - the donut economy Our moorlands protected - both for their wildlife and their function as carbon sinks and flood protection *Connect with Donut economics action lab *Measure against sustainable development goals.
How you spend your day?
